Are you feeling stuck in a loop and feeling you cannot find your way out? Having challenges with your beliefs, emotions, attitudes or thoughts, which in turn creates more of a downward spiral? It is common for people to get stuck in our own emotional loops, creating more and more of the situations we are trying to avoid! Believe it or not, we can become addicted to these chemical patterns. It feels like we are going crazy, when in fact we may just be waking up.

Join Jackie Woodside to learn specific techniques that you can begin applying today to break your spirals, cycles, and chaos. Join us in the Quantum Field of Possibilities and start enjoying the life you know you deserve!

Quantum Consciousness What is it?

- ◆ Living in Quantum Consciousness means living beyond the realm of appearances – not seeing your “reality” as the physical world around you but as the cosmic or ENERGETIC field you are constantly creating. It requires creating the energetic conditions in your life that lead to ongoing creation of your desires, resulting in ever-expanding good for yourself and the world.
- ◆ It is the ability to do less and accomplish more. The irony of living in quantum consciousness is that it accelerates living and brings greater balance, clarity and peace of mind. What accelerates is your CONSCIOUSNESS, not the pace of life.
